Letter to the Editor

Contrary to suggestions in “Grand Slam for Barangaroo’s Grand Plan” (December 22), the winning Lend Lease plan for Barangaroo will be subject to a standard public planning process which includes a public exhibition.

While the majority of the Lend Lease plan fits within the approved Concept Plan, amendments to be sought will include the height of some of the buildings, 15% additional floor space, and the placement of the public pier and hotel extending into the water.

The emphasis of the plan is on returning 100% of the waterfront to the people of Sydney.

The overall Barangaroo concept now introduces an additional 1.5 hectares of water coves, and adds 750m of waterfront to the existing Barangaroo shoreline.

The Lord Richard Rogers designed Lend Lease plan offers an exceptional urban outcome that will present a great new western perspective for our city.
